

CVČ – Regional Youth Center, Stojárenská 3, Košice
is announcing an international digital competition of creative art for high school students

„QUO VADIS, MAN? (Where is this world headed?)

Motto of the competition: „You shouldn't judge something you don't understand.“
(RabíndranáthThákur, 1861 – 1941, indian philosopher, poet, dramatist.)

The art competition is aimed to motivate young people to react throughout art to the current happenings in human society. Within the competition they can relate to current matters that echo in the human society, either on a local, regional or worldwide level.

Since the competition is international we suppose, that the interpretation of this mater is going to vary, presented from different point of views, which of course is our intention. With its help we can understand the perception of todays reality throughout the eyes of young people from different cultures and in this way create an international dialogue on an artistic level.

The competition is organized as an inherent activity within the project „Critical thinking and media literacy“.

Dead line of the competition: 25.11.2018

Terms of the competition

- Participation is possible for young people, individuals and groups from the age 14 to 20 with a maximum of 3 projects for one participant or group
- All kind of two dimensional art techniques can be used – (including computer graphics) , multimedia presentations, music, film ....
- The competition runs exclusively in digital form
- Project are to be sent exclusively in digital form in formats JPG, PDF or AVI/DIVX/MP4 with a maximum size of 15MB, (in case of bigger files on CD or DVD by post).
- To all projects are to be attached filled out application forms that contain this information: name and age of the author, name of the project, description of the project, technique with which the project was made, contact – adress of the author – home or school adress (in case of group project all information about the participants but only one contact)
- The professional jury takes in consideration not only the artistic part of the project but reflects also on the idea which is presented within the project so do not underestimate this information. Describe in the application what are you trying to express in your project and what does it represent.

- In case of texts in foreign languages, attach translation in Slovak or in English language.
- All projects are going to be published on our web site www.rcm.sk
- Chosen projects will be printed and exposed in CVČ-RCM on Strojárska street 3, Košice.
- The organizers reserve the right for the selection of the project and the right not to give away all prizes.

Categories:

- I, cat. Two-dimensional art Works (all art techniques + computer graphics)
 II, cat. Multimedia projects (power point presentations, film, music...)
 III, cat. Literary Works (poetry, prose)

The exhibition of the best works (in printed form) is going to be available in the CVČ- Regional Youth Center on the Strojárska street 3, Košice from the 12.12.2018
The official evaluation of the competing projects will take place on the Conference to the project „Critical thinking and media literacy“. The anticipated date is the first half of December 2018.

Place and time will be communicated in time on our web site, prized authors and groups will be invited to the conference.

Competing projects please send via email to the adress: sutaz.rcm@gmail.com or on CD, DVD via post to the adress: Centrum voľného času – Regionálne centrum mládeže, Strojárska 3, 040 01 Košice.

Contact person:

Mgr. Ľubica Oberučová – coordinator

Tel: 055/ 622 38 20

e-mail: sutaz.rcm@gmail.com

Ing. Erika Munková
 director CVČ- RCM